The Society

A hidden society has existed for over a hundred generations. It is a parallel society that quietly coexists with the obvious society in which we live. A tiny fraction of the population, however, ever enters or knows about The Society. It has no founder — it is bigger than any one man, any one generation, any one dynasty. It is the society of the ultra-successful geniuses, and you now have been invited into The Society and its 2000-year-old, most guarded secrets.

The Greatest Hidden Secret of All Time!

Dear New Society Member,

Congratulations! You have been accepted as a new Society member. ...You are truly one of the lucky few.

A short time ago, a group of experts discovered that you possess phenomenal talents just waiting to be unleashed. That is why this exclusive group, some whose names you would recognize, has chosen you to receive, personally, a secret that will unleash incredible powers within you — allowing you to prosper in every area of life: emotionally, personally, physically, romantically and financially.

With your special talents, all the money, love and opportunity you've ever wanted could come to you easily, effortlessly and automatically. You'll even know how to make any person, man or woman, like you, admire you, love you! All you have to do is absorb the simple, easy, secret system about to be revealed to you.

Read every single word written in the following five stories of this Society Revelation booklet, (the first of two confidential Society installments) because this small book has hidden power. When you discover the secret meaning within the following five stories about money and love, you will discover the most incredible, almost indescribable, personal skills and talents and will become wealthy and unforgettable.

If you do not discover the secret meaning within these 55 pages, you will still absorb that secret meaning while reading the five stories. As a consequence, three very major good things, prompted by your subconscious, will happen to you within two weeks involving money, love, and the unleashing of astounding powers within you.

Now, here is the first story of this Revelation booklet as told by a woman who, just like you, received this Revelation booklet from the Society seven years ago. After reading this Revelation booklet and absorbing its secret meanings, she prospered as never before, developing incredible money, love, and personal powers!

Story I

Please keep secret what I am about to tell you, because this information is confidential. These words are meant for Revelation booklet owners only.

There has existed for many years an exclusive association, a hidden society, of some of the world's most famous and powerful people. These include renowned actors and musicians, leading scientists and intellectuals, self-made entrepreneurs and artists, even some of the rare genuine astrologers and psychics. Many of these people you would instantly recognize. Before I go on, let me state that everything you read here is absolutely and verifiably true.

This association has uncovered some shockingly powerful secrets. And they share these secrets only amongst themselves. In fact, these secrets are the reason these well-known individuals have achieved great prosperity and success.

Because you have been sent this Revelation booklet, I know that members of the Society have analyzed your profile and that they've discovered something special about you. In fact, I know that you possess rare traits they are searching for. Because of these traits, which we'll talk about later, they have chosen you to become part of their exclusive club and to share their secrets, too. By the way, as you read this, you may be saying to yourself that this is all a bunch of hooey. But I swear on the Bible this is all true!

You see, every year this association picks individuals from around the world possessing your unique traits to share in their secrets — secrets that lead to enormous prosperity, love, happiness, total peace of mind. In your case, your hidden talents must be phenomenal for the members to select you!

How did these gifted people find you? For now, that must remain a mystery.

But I can shed light on how they found you by first telling you my own story: Seven years ago I was like you. Out of the blue, I received an invitation from this society. Just like you, they said I possessed special traits. I was flattered, excited, yet skeptical. But, when they sent their Revelation booklet to me personally a few days later for free, just as they said they would, my luck changed so completely I thought God must be guiding me, giving me special powers!

I even got a little greedy. For example, after I received these secrets, I won every time I gambled! It was unbelievable! My friends asked me if I had some kind of guardian angel looking after me. But it wasn't luck; the Secrets armed me with the power to win.

Something else remarkable happened. With these secrets I actually knew what other people were thinking, as if I was reading their minds. And I knew how they were going to react to everything I said and did. What came over me seemed almost magical, supernatural.

Because of these amazing abilities, I was able to quit my job and start an incredibly successful business that I absolutely love, right out of my home. I then turned this business over to my husband, and he grew it to a multi-million-dollar international company. (I was allowed to give him the secrets because the association said he was accepted as part of "the package".) You can imagine how grateful he was!

The Secrets unlocked other incredible talents within me as well, talents I never knew I had. For example, my memory immediately improved, dramatically. I suddenly possessed a photographic memory. This enabled me to go back to college, earn straight A's, and get the art degree I had always dreamed of.

Because you, too, have been sent this Revelation booklet, I know that your profile, like mine, will enable you to do these same things and much more: (Remember, these are the very same secrets that the world's most successful celebrities, entrepreneurs, scientists, sports stars, professional gamblers and romantic lovers possess!)

For example, soon after I received the Secrets I eliminated all my addictions and bad habits — food, alcohol, cigarettes and sweets within a matter of days. Virtually overnight I lost 30lbs. And I effortlessly maintained my ideal weight. I felt younger, healthier, and more beautiful than I ever had! It was as if I had shed 10 years off my age! Even my skin seemed to rejuvenate into the glow of a teenager. Now, heads turn wherever I walk! ...My husband is the rich man-on-the-hill, and I am his beautiful wife. I'm a trophy (he! he! he!) and I love it!

Now, you may be skeptical, just like I was. But, just as this elite group did for me, we're going to offer all the Secrets to you, personally.

Let me tell you something else — maybe not as dramatic as winning lots of money or starting a multimillion-dollar business, but just as important. Today, everyone I meet wants to be my friend. People respect me, admire me, love me. I have become the center of their attention. And all my relationships — romantic, family, friends, co-workers — have become incredible. Many men want a romantic relationship with me, but I want only my husband.

In fact, I must tell you that the best thing of all was that these remarkable secrets allowed me to eternally capture the heart of my husband, the only man I had ever wanted! ...Right after I absorbed the Secrets, he confessed, Your love just blows me away! Then, he quickly looked away before I could see the tears welling up in his eyes.

I say these things not to gloat, but to let you know that you can have these same things, too! For, with the Secrets, with your unique soul, you can actually do the seemingly impossible. Personal talents will blossom within you that you never imagined you had. For example, I can now sit at a piano and play virtually any song, note for note, from memory. In addition, I can gaze at a landscape and turn it into a beautiful painting on the spot. It's as though every single ability within me has become supercharged, with no effort on my part!

Other people have noticed this in me, too. My husband said that at the clubhouse, he overheard his golfing buddies talking about me, and they concurred on one point: SHE'S GOT IT!

Now, dear reader, you'd be amazed to know just who these particular world-renown members were who chose you! But, alas, it's a hidden society and although everything I say here is true, their identities must remain anonymous. Those who chose you, though, do realize your special qualities. YOU'VE GOT IT! You just have not fully realized your special qualities yet.

Although people around you may not see it, we know that you have experienced moments in which you feel spiritually gifted. In those euphoric moments, you know you are special, you absolutely know it, and you feel you are here to do great things with your life. Right? Well, we know it, too. And yes, you are meant to do great things, exactly as we are going to show you.

How do we know? Be honest: have you ever felt like God or some higher power may be communicating with you, giving you a sign? If you answered yes, and we know you did, then you are indeed that special person we are looking for. And this is your calling. It's as simple as that.

Now, let's get into it: Did you know that some individuals can recall every detail of their entire lives from childhood onward when hypnotized? A few astonish their hypnotist by accurately telling what their hypnotist is thinking. That seems baffling, until you understand that when you're hypnotized, your conscious left brain shuts down and you become totally immersed in your subconscious right brain. ...One of the techniques the society has uncovered is a simple, 12-second technique that works like reverse hypnosis, allowing you to effortlessly tap this ability while remaining fully conscious. This is a boon for actors memorizing lines and calling up strong emotions, students studying for exams, and career persons needing to memorize important facts, procedures and names.

Here's something else that's phenomenal. With the Secrets you can read the future. To scientists, who are very left-brain, logic oriented, this seems incredulous. But you have the special qualities that can unlock these future-telling abilities. Some gifted people like you get drawn into mysticism because of such startling abilities. They think it must be supernatural. But these are very real human talents of the gifted few — rare talents waiting to be unleashed in a few special people like you. ...Not everyone has the potential to do these kinds of things, but you do!

Consider another astonishing ability — the power to cure. Sigmund Freud was astounded when he documented cases whereby a deaf woman regained her hearing, a crippled man regained his ability to walk, a cancer patient's tumors went into permanent remission, a man with progressive heart disease made a complete recovery, and a blind child regained her sight — all instantaneously! Some call these Faith Healings, others call these cases Miracles of God. But Freud discovered these are powers buried within a handful of people with unique talents — talents the Society has detected in you, dear reader!

Such miraculous abilities are what make a person believe, "There must exist another realm, a higher mystical realm, or how else can one explain these phenomena." Well, there does exist a realm that no one (outside of this association) can explain, a realm in a few unique people that's so powerful and beyond our everyday experience it does seem like they're blessed with miracles. Our association has discovered that you, too, have that other realm, and our members are willing to show you exactly how to unleash those miracles. We will do this because you are a rare find. We want you to join us.

Remember, these are the very same powers that the most successful, exclusive people in the world have anonymously used to obtain great wealth, success, love, fame. And you belong in that exclusive group, dear reader! That is why you are receiving this Society Revelation booklet. The Society is now personally inviting you into our exclusive group. In fact, to show you how sincere and real this group and our invitation is, we are offering you and only you (as they did to me seven years ago) all of our very confidential, personal secrets.

All I can tell you now is that within hours after absorbing all of our secrets (I am now one of the anonymous members), you'll be benefiting in every area of your life.

Now, this brings us to another important point. When we analyze potential profiles (the people who do this analyzing are brilliant, I just wish I could name a few names for you) we search for special people like you who are about to enter cycle three. What's cycle three? There are seven fundamental cycles in life that every person passes through, regardless of where or when they live. Cycle three is the most important cycle because it's the cycle of breaking bondage, of discovering and being discovered. That is why this exclusive group has sent you this Revelation booklet.

Everyone who has ever really prospered in life, from celebrities to entrepreneurs, from gamblers to lovers, from captains of industry to heads of state did properly implement this third stage cycle — though most didn't consciously know that was what they were doing. And that's what makes the really successful people so indestructible — no matter what happens to them, or around them, they always end up on top. Even if they get fired, cheated, dumped, estranged from their lovers, or somehow made flat broke, within a few months they'll be back on top, prospering beyond most peoples' dreams. Those who previously shunned them come running back, pleading for their love and affection. You've probably seen famous people like that on TV. Maybe you know someone like this. The point is, cycle three is your time to act — it's your calling!

So I now warn you, fair and square, don't let the self-discovery that cycle three offers you slip by. You are now entering this third cycle and it's so important that you privately see all of the Secrets to launch all of cycle three's opportunities. That's why we're making the Secrets available to you at this time, in full. You'll have time later to ponder about this exclusive group, but you must absorb all of the secrets now, before this opportunity is gone with the wind, forever!

These are the same secrets that the two-time Binion's World Champion of Poker winner offered $50,000 for and that a Fortune 500 company offered $70,000 for.

To be perfectly honest, when I look back and think of my life before the Society, I shudder at the thought of what I could have missed out on. Even now, in an unguarded moment, this thought anguishes me. But then I think of my future armed with the Secrets and I relax. Now, I awake each morning full of excitement and satisfaction.

If you, dear reader, are like I was before, you're probably experiencing some uneasiness, restlessness, a dissatisfaction with the world. Is major success, an exciting and satisfying relationship, and real wealth truly unattainable? You long for it, I know. I always did. But if you cannot seem to achieve it, I am telling you, instead of letting go of that desire, take a new direction. Answer this calling today. (...Many of us in the association have risen from living in dumps and projects to penthouses and multi-million-dollar custom homes because of these very same secrets.)

Right now, you have a moment unlike any before. Don't let this moment pass. Go with your true instincts and act! Those of us here in the Society are so looking forward to your presence, to your presence now, that we're offering you the chance to get and absorb all of the Secrets in their entirety. But you must read and absorb these secrets now before you miss your opportunity, before you have gone too far into cycle three.

The Greatest Hidden Secret of All Time!

So, sit back and read this Revelation booklet now, and then act! We are totally willing to share with you all of our secrets! And before long, you'll be ready to meet us. But I mean it when I say you must do this now. That's a given, for these secrets are too exclusive!

Yours sincerely,

Now, turn the page to read the second story of this Revelation booklet as told by a woman who was so depressed she actually contemplated suicide, but who, upon being discovered by the Society, just like you have been, is now a famous TV celebrity and writer who personally used the Secrets to go from broke to a happy, thriving, famous multi-millionaire in less than a year:

Story II

The Most Important Money, Romantic-Love, Personal Power Discovery of All Time!

Although I cannot reveal my name, many of you have watched my early-morning television talk show. Today I live a lifestyle most people only dream about. My family lives in a magnificent $3 million custom home. We vacation a month at a time at the most spectacular and beautiful resorts in the world...ALL FIRST CLASS! I make more money than my family and I could spend in five lifetimes! My husband and I experience a beautiful, romantic love relationship that gets better every day. My two beautiful children are full of love and happiness. We're incredibly happy, have peace of mind, and feel totally in control in all situations. I live without fear or depression. I'm well liked by everyone I meet and enjoy many close friendships. I'm in excellent physical shape and have more energy than I've had in 30 years. I wake up when I want, do what I want, and live each day the way I chose. I have total freedom.

Today my life reads like a fairy tale.

I say these things not to show off but to let you realize one thing...you, too, possess rare, hidden traits that when unleashed through the Society will enable you to share in this magnificent bounty, too.

You see...life wasn't always this way for me, either.

Several years ago I was struggling in every area of my life. I was living a miserable existence. I was 40 pounds overweight and had no energy. I thought I must have had that energy-consuming Epstein-Barr disease. I couldn't even get my two little ones ready for bed. My marriage was on the verge of divorce. Bills were piling up everywhere and our family couldn't make ends meet. This stress was affecting my children, who began to withdraw and become anti-social. The worst day of my life was when our family was evicted from our house and we had to move into a cramped one-bedroom apartment. My life was way, way out of control. I had no peace, no security, almost no marriage, and no money. We were all so unhappy, which broke my heart. It also scared me to death.

My husband and I reached a dead-end. And I saw no way out. Things would not stay this way forever, they just got worse. People I called friends began avoiding me. I didn't know why others acted the way they did, or what they thought about me. Everything around me got dark.

You may be relating to some of these feelings.

One day after my husband finally left us, I dropped my children at my mother's house. In a heavy state of depression, a girlfriend and I drove to Las Vegas. That day, my whole life changed.

I began playing the slots. Nearby was an easy going, likable guy who was winning everything. His uncanny lucky streak was so obvious it seemed unbelievable. This must have been his lucky day because he just couldn't lose.

Everyone was amazed at this guy.

As soon as I lost everything I had (which wasn't very long), I nonchalantly asked him how he got so lucky. I didn't really expect an answer, but he surprised me. He took me aside and said to me,

"It's not luck. Money, power, love and the most amazing personal abilities are automatically drawn to me. What you saw today happens to me every day!"

I couldn't believe my ears and I told him so. I would've thought he was an ego manic if I hadn't seen him win so much so effortlessly with my own eyes. He smiled and simply said, "Follow me for a couple of days and see for yourself." I felt really weird following a man around, but I was so desperate, I did!

What I saw made me speechless and spellbound. Every day he won thousands of dollars easily and effortlessly. It looked like magic. Beautiful women would actually come up to him and start conversations. Everyone instantly liked him. He was like Clark Kent, quiet, unassuming, yet possessing almost super-human powers. ...He was always a step ahead of everyone else — as though he was reading the future. He was...well...hot! Three days later he sat me down and said,

“Every successful person throughout history knew what I know. That’s why they were successful, rich, happy, healthy and powerful.”

As I sat there it dawned on me...he was right. Over the decades all successful people, salesmen, businessmen, politicians, Hollywood actors and actresses, religious leaders, famous lovers, TV commentators, heads of state, kings, queens, writers, generals, lawyers, entrepreneurs, investors, millionaires, speculators, gamblers, all must have secretly used shortcuts that require little skill yet contain invisible power. But what they used and how they used it was the mystery.

What this man said next stunned me. He looked directly into my eyes and said, “Jennifer, I know you’re a special person. In fact, I’ve been expecting to meet you. You have hidden talents that few others have. Do not despair, because you will be discovered. ...But the time must be right. When it is, I shall reveal my secrets to you.”

He smiled and then simply walked away.

I was speechless. I couldn’t move. I couldn’t talk.

For the next seven months I went to every library I could find, reading everything on successful and talented people. I bought self-improvement systems, I invested in home study courses, I attended motivational seminars. I even visited several astrologers, two psychics, and a palm reader.

To my dismay nothing in my life changed.

Finally, seven months later, I awoke one morning totally depressed by my deteriorating circumstances. Still single, I decided to go to Las Vegas to see if by some miracle I could find that mystery man again.

During the drive I stopped to get some lunch at a cafe in what seemed to be a small deserted ghost town. I sat sipping my coffee and noticed a library directly across the street. Out of habit I went in to see if they had anything I hadn't already read. I told the librarian what I was looking for. Suddenly, a puzzled and disturbed look came across her face.

She told me,

"A couple weeks ago a fine-looking man came in here and described you. He told me that you'd be 'entering a cycle of opportunity,' whatever that means, and that you'd be stopping here soon."

When she described the man, I knew she was talking about the fellow I had met seven months ago in Las Vegas! THE MOST AMAZING WINNER I'VE EVER SEEN!

The librarian continued, "He asked me to give you a special book." She went into the back room and came out with a dusty old book printed in 1872. In it was a copy of a manuscript written almost 2000 years ago, translated into English.

I read...and read...and read. It told the story of a hidden society in ancient Greece of very rich and powerful men and women who possessed astonishing personal powers. And it told exactly how their wealth and powers were attained!

What I discovered put me into a state of shock. These appeared to be the most closely guarded secrets in history, the same secrets that every wealthy person used throughout history. I now had in my hands the raw secrets that could make me rich and in control, that would arm me with the most incredible personal powers you can imagine — talents and skills so farfetched that I can't even describe them to you, you simply have to experience them to believe it.

PLUS...the ability to smooth out all problem relationships — from my estranged husband to my withdrawn children to my former co-workers, and the secrets that could make any man fall in love with me.

I HAD DISCOVERED THE MOST IMPORTANT MONEY/LOVE/PERSONAL POWER SECRET OF ALL TIME!

Immediately I began to apply my new knowledge. Virtually everything I touched turned to gold! I lost 40 pounds. My health and energy level improved dramatically. When my husband came to visit the kids, he never left. Our romantic love relationship became incredible. I became happy and feeling totally free. ALL OF MY DREAMS STARTED TO COME TRUE! Within a year we were millionaires. It was awesome!

A few weeks later I finally met that mystery man from Las Vegas again. It turns out that he used this secret knowledge to become one of the youngest Senior Research Chemists for E.I. du Pont de Nemours & Co. During his stellar 12 years at Du Pont's famous Brandywine and Chestnut Run Laboratories, he used this secret knowledge to advance major discoveries involving cars at General Motors, computers at IBM, fighter planes, space crafts, and missiles in our government, and progressive disease cures in medicine.

He also used this secret knowledge to become a world-class poker player, and he wrote the world's bestselling poker manual published by Warner Books, New York.

And, of course, he used this secret knowledge to make millions of dollars.

The mystery man became a mentor in the Society. He brilliantly taught senior members the raw knowledge contained in that 2000-year-old manuscript. Together they identified hundreds of specific shortcuts and secrets and put them into a simple, easy-to-use and follow format. They called their new manuscript "The Secrets" and keep it hidden in the vault 24/7. The Society releases its secrets only to a few, specially qualified members. The secrets appear nowhere else, NOT on the Internet...only in the vault.

Although some people in powerful places believed the mystery man would win the Nobel Prize for his work in the Society, he never was interested in making this secret knowledge public. He knew he must stay true to its roots, and only allow a select few members access to this knowledge at just the right time, just as the ancients did. Even when the reigning world champion of poker, two-time winner of the Binion's Horseshoe World Championship of Poker in Las Vegas offered the mystery man $50,000 CASH for this exact same information he uses every day, he said, "No." And when a Fortune 500 company offered $70,000 UP FRONT for just the surface layer of this information, he still said, "No." Only Society members get these secrets.

Let me tell you, those few lucky enough to get this system can now learn the material in a matter of minutes, no matter what your background, financial situation, education or age.

The Secrets will allow those lucky few to prosper monetarily, personally, physically, romantically and financially, anywhere in the world, even during personal and financial hard times, inflation, recession, depression, war.

This system is, in reality, a scientific method for capturing major financial and personal advantages everywhere, 24 hours a day! It has never been released to the public and is so revolutionary it will shock you with its simplicity and power!

Once you are exposed to The Secrets you could quietly profit from everyone, everywhere, every time. You will acquire personal abilities and skills that are simply too incredible to describe here.

Just imagine how you will feel with THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS in extra cash coming in...EACH WEEK! Just imagine how you will feel when you have power over everyone in every situation. Just imagine how you will feel when you have peace and romantic love overflowing in your life. Just imagine how you will feel when you can command the most incredible personal skills and talents — from photographic memory abilities to psychic abilities to the most amazing artistic and musical abilities! ...Even the most incredible gambling and luck abilities!

Does this sound too good to be true? WELL...IT IS TRUE!!

You'll find, as I did, the Secrets work better than you could ever imagine possible! These incredibly easy to apply secrets work with all money and power gathering methods and in all situations involving the transfer of power, money and love.

The secret knowledge applies to the stock market, investments, your employer, your co-workers, business, politics, social situations and personal and romantic relationships. Even games of chance like poker, black jack, horses, and the lottery.

(My accountant and tax attorney advise me I shouldn't tell you how many MILLIONS OF DOLLARS are now mine because of the Secrets.)

Story III

The Mysterious Manuscript

I remember sitting on a bench in a beautiful garden. My mom had died unexpectedly a few days before. Still in shock over her sudden loss, I was grieving terribly. My wife was home with our two young children.

I put my hands on my head and leaned forward, as would a person who is crying. But I was quiet.

As I leaned forward, I saw a faded manuscript with aged paper under the bench where I was sitting. I leaned down further and pulled it up.

Strangely, when I picked up that large, faded manuscript, the emotional pain that enveloped me seemed to ease up.

I opened the mysterious manuscript. I was in no emotional state to start reading, but I glanced at the bold headings throughout it. I could not remember what I read, but I was feeling better. I got up to leave. I looked forward to being with my wife and kids.

Over the next three weeks, some wonderful changes came over my life. Although I was in no mood to celebrate anything, I could not help notice how my income had suddenly tripled as I began closing lucrative deals at work with incredible ease, and a couple old investments I had almost forgotten about soared. Even a two-dollar lottery ticket I bought with my young daughter to try and cheer us up won! Everyone was really nice to me — even those who had no idea my mom had just passed away. Out of the blue, interesting men and women struck up conversations and talked to me. I began to ask myself, what's all this? What's different about me now?

Well, my mom had just died, and I was still grieving. I knew that could not be behind this string of unusual happenings. But what else was different about me?

Then, I remembered the old manuscript from the garden. I went to my car and found the manuscript on the floor. The cover was badly faded by the sun, but I could barely make out the words Society across the front. I had forgotten completely what I had seen inside it.

When I wrapped my hand around the spine of that manuscript to pick it up, I felt a huge burden flow out of my body and, at the exact same instance, I felt exhilaration flow into my body, filling the space previously occupied by the burden.

“Wow,” I remember thinking, “this old manuscript must be the source behind my unexplainable good luck and charm.”

I opened it right there on the driveway and began to read. In a metaphysical way, I felt as though my mom was no longer gone from my life. Maybe, I thought, just maybe this manuscript is her gift to me.

One section within this book told an amazing story about twelve children who grew up to become very wealthy and successful. The story told how their wealth and success were attained. All these children also grew up to be great lovers. This book told the story of how their amazing love relationships were attained.

As I read the amazing stories, I felt as though the greatest secrets to money, power, and love were being told to me.

It did not take long to read through the whole manuscript. What happened to me next was unbelievable, BUT TRUE!

The next day, everything I looked at seemed to give me omniscient powers. I turned on the television and for every sporting event on the tube, I accurately predicted who would win. I picked five stocks I had a good feeling about. All five shot up for weeks.

I decided to go to Las Vegas and play some poker — I’m not sure why, but I just wanted to. For the first time, I came home a huge winner.

That night I looked up into the night sky and told my mom that I knew she had brought me this gift. As I thanked her, I saw the first “falling star” I had ever seen in my life.

The Society

When I walked into my house and looked at my one-and-a-half year old boy and five-year-old daughter, I felt so much love for them I was overcome with tears.

“Your grandma is looking over you,” I said softly.

The old, faded manuscript I read a few days before was an interpretation of a book written 2000 years ago. I’ve since come to realize these were the secrets every extremely lucky and famous person throughout history used. This book contained the most well guarded secrets in over 2000 years!

This manuscript watches over me and fills my life with wealth, happiness, and love. It can do the same for you — you will know it is working when twelve very major good things happen to you within 72 hours after receiving it.

Some of the good things that immediately happened to me were:

- My wife got pregnant with the third child we wanted but seemed unable to conceive.
- Asthma ceased to torment my daughter — just vanished from her childhood.
- I slimmed down to a slim person, never to gain it back.
- I went from struggling financially to a wealthy man with one immediate turn.
- All the negativity, all at once, left my life, never to return.
- I fell madly in love with my wife all over again, and our passion has not waned since.
- I went from being a social introvert to being the most popular and likeable man in our community.
- Almost overnight, everything about me and my confusing life became clear for the first time. Now, I have a clear vision, steady focus, and a deep harmony and fulfillment.
- I am the person I was meant to be, living the life I was meant to live. I'm very, very happy.

The Mysterious Manuscript

- I live in a four-million-dollar custom-built mansion.
- I drive an $185,000 luxury import.
- I vacation with my family ALL FIRST CLASS.
- My children are in the most expensive private school.
- I almost never step foot in my office. Instead, I do whatever I want all day.

I could go on, but you get the idea. The fact that all this good happens very, very quickly is no exaggeration. Remember, I had just flipped through the manuscript in the garden and could not even remember the headings I had glanced at when very good things started happening to me.

Here is why, as I now realize, so much good happens so quickly: Inside the 2000-year-old secrets are hidden messages with secret meanings that even I am not aware of, which pass into the reader with certain powers that have evolved over a hundred generations for the past two millennia. I think some of those secret meanings are hidden in the bold headings themselves. So, when a reader takes just ten minutes, as I did, glancing over the chapter headings and subheadings, he or she absorbs some of the ancient secret powers.

That makes perfect sense, for a manuscript that contains the two-thousand-year-old secrets to wealth, power, and love used exclusively by the rich, powerful and famous...therein such a manuscript lies the most evolved competitive advantages, shortcuts, and powers.

Those secret powers evolved for two thousand years. Of course, we will not understand them all, but we will absorb them through this manuscript. They are the timeless ancient powers preserved for all time in this manuscript.

You will believe those powers exist and pass into you within three days of receiving the manuscript. Like me, out of the blue, even after just glancing through the headings, very good things will start happening to you — immediately.

The Society

If you're single you could meet and fall in love with the woman or man of your dreams.

If you're poor, you could stumble upon the opportunity of a lifetime and onto the path of wealth and riches.

If you're sickly, you could suddenly make a turn toward health and vitality.

If you're meek and cowardly, you'll suddenly become strong and in control.

If you're depressed or unhappy...this manuscript will be your Shangri-La.

Now, here is perhaps the most amazing aspect of this manuscript, the most phenomenal of its powers: I actually believe it cures aging. I know, at first, that sounds incredible. But, I see the evidence.

It is true and the evidence is in this amazing manuscript.

I felt as though this was a very special gift my mom led me to — my own life-force. The physical manuscript itself had a powerful affect on me every time I held it, which I never wanted to lose. With it, there was so much love and prosperity in my life — money flowing into my bank account and a lot of love flowing into my life from others, even from strangers, especially from loved ones...and from me to my wife and kids. I did not want to let it go.

One afternoon, in the middle of the week, I sat in a Burger King having burgers and fries with my wife and kids. (I did not have to sit in an office all day anymore. I now enjoyed a free life-style.) I noticed a man and his son a few booths away. How nice, I thought, seeing a dad and his boy out together. The boy was probably eight or nine years old.

As my family was eating, suddenly we heard a man's overwhelming loud voice shouting and then a child's tiny voice shriek, "No!"

I looked up and saw the same man a few booths away with one arm around the boy's neck and the other arm, fist clinched, pointed at his boy's face. The boy was crying and his dad yelled, "Shut up. SHUT UP!"

The Mysterious Manuscript

I was in disbelief. He was a split second away from punching his frightened son, point blank in the face!

What happened next came to me from a power beyond myself. I jumped off my chair with my manuscript in my hand. (I carried it with me wherever I went, always.) As I rushed to the booth, I thought I was going to smash the abusive man in the head. His brute attack on his helpless son enraged me, for I felt so much love for my children, I could not bear what I saw before me.

My wife saw the look in my eyes and shouted at me, "Don't do it!" as I ran to the man's booth.

Here is where some cosmic power took over. With my left hand, I grabbed his right hand that was clinched and pointed at his boy's head, and I pulled it back. With my other hand that was holding my manuscript, I thrust the manuscript against his fist.

"Take it!" I shouted.

Reluctantly, but beyond his own will, he slowly opened his fist and accepted the old manuscript. Then I heard myself make the two-word command: "OPEN IT!"

He did. When he did, his reaction took my breath away. I stood back and watched:

His eyes widened as he glanced over the Chapter Headings in the Table of Contents. I knew some of the hidden messages were entering his mind along with the immense love.

His body relaxed, and he slid his other arm from around his son's neck and put it against the back of the manuscript. For about five minutes, he flipped through the whole manuscript as I had done that day in the garden.

Then, he dropped his gaze to the floor for a minute and shook his head. In a heart rending moment, he turned toward his son, who immediately flinched.

The Society

“I’m so, so sorry,” his dad said from somewhere very deep in his heart, and then he leaned over and hugged his son. “Oh Jason, I’m so, so sorry.”

The boy could not believe what was happening. I could see the love, for the first time, rushing up from this man and flowing into his boy.

When the dad began to weep, his boy hugged him back and said, “It’s okay, Dad.” That made his dad cry even more.

When he sat up and looked his son in the eyes, his boy smiled. He knew deep inside that the abuse was over, forever.

His father spoke softly, “I’ve been under so much pressure since being let go...”

That’s when I knew this was a sign from my mother that this family needed my special manuscript.

“Not anymore,” I said. “Those pressures will vanish with this manuscript. Your financial problems are over.”

Father and son looked up at me with relief and gratefulness.

“You keep this for a few days and read it,” I said to the dad. “The rest of your life and his will be full of wealth and love.”

They were both speechless and sat in disbelief. But I knew I could completely trust him with the manuscript. So I pulled out my card and slipped it into the manuscript.

“Call me when you’re done,” I said. He did not have any words to say. He smiled at me and nodded. My family and I finished our lunch, my kids and wife asking me a hundred questions I did not quite know how to answer.

A few days later, the man whom I found out was named John, called me and said, “I don’t know what’s happening, but I got hired in the highest paying job in my life, and I feel as though it’s only the beginning. In everything I do, I feel incredibly lucky. I’m on some kind of winning streak or something. What’s in this manuscript?”

“Some kind of ancient powers,” I said seriously. “You cannot lose.”

There was a pause over the phone, then he said, “And I also spend all my spare time now with my boy. I look forward to coming home to him now.”

“It’s the love of our ancestors coming through the manuscript,” I said, not fully sure of what I meant.

The next morning, he returned the manuscript. As he handed the old manuscript to me, he said, “I owe you my life.”

“This manuscript can save lives,” I heard myself saying. “It can save marriages, save families, save one’s sanity. It can make homeless people become rich people. It can lift a person, a family out of poverty or depression and into prosperity.”

“I agree,” he muttered. The way he clutched the manuscript just before handing it back over to me, like a child not wanting to let go of his favorite stuffed animal when mom thinks it’s time to give it away, got my attention. When he was leaving, the look on his face was obvious: he did not want to part with the manuscript. It was an enormous positive force in his life, like his own real lucky charm.

Now, three years later, my life is like a fantasy. I live in a 13,000-square-foot mansion that I had custom built. I live in the same neighborhood with movie stars, television stars, the highest paid sports stars, and wealthy business owners. Since I found that manuscript three years ago, I don’t think my wife or I have aged, which amazes us and our friends. Needless to say, I have become wealthy, and I have found true love and happiness. All the missing pieces in my life have been found and snapped into place. That longing for “something more” in life no longer exists for me, for I have everything now.

And I feel I did a great thing when I brought that manuscript to a man in dire need. I am reminded of my good deed every time my good friend John visits, and I look into his son’s happy eyes.

Sincerely,

Story IV

The Twelve-Second Miracle

 A Famous Celebrity Testifies **

I am writing this letter under an assumed name. If I told you who I was, you would instantly recognize me. I have several bestselling books; I appear on television virtually every day, all around the world. As a matter of fact, my TV shows are some of the most watched programs in television history.

I have appeared on stage with the United States' President Ronald Reagan, the Soviet Union President Mikhail Gorbachev, General Norman Schwarzkopf, and many other wealthy, famous people.

Today, I am a multi-millionaire and have an incredible lifestyle. I am in control of my destiny. I feel happy, confident, and at peace with myself. I have many loyal friends, a loving family and am excited about living every day to its fullest.

I am telling you this up front, because I want you to pay attention to what I have to say.

I have a very important, potentially life-changing question to ask you. How would you like your life to almost magically transform, virtually overnight, into what you've always dreamed it would be? I want you to think about something very seriously for just a moment. If a genie came out of a lamp right now and told you he would grant you any wish for your life, what would it be? If you could design and create your personal ideal lifestyle, right now, how would it look? Would it be having all of your bills paid off? How about having a hundred thousand dollars, or even $500,000 in the bank? Imagine not having to work a job anymore, being able to spend all the time you want to with your family and children. What type of car would you drive? What type of home would you live in? What type of clothes would you wear? Where would you travel? What type of relationship would you have? Would you be happy? Imagine having no stress and anxiety. What would your body look like? Would you be at your ideal weight? Imagine being able to eat anything you want, and never gain weight. Would you like to have people always wanting to be your friend? ...Including rich and famous people?

I am writing this letter to you to let you know, flat out, that these things could happen to you. Let me say that again. Your ideal lifestyle can be yours. How do I know this?

You see, years ago, I was given the secret to not only making huge amounts of money, but also having total peace of mind, happiness, having the romantic love relationship in your life you've always wanted, and having total freedom.

Imagine having the time and the money to do what you want, when you want and with whom you want. Imagine smiling and laughing every day. Having more physical energy than you've ever imagined. Being at your perfect weight and looking great. Having self-confidence and being in control of your life and the future. You see, I was fortunate enough to be given the secret that can make all of these fantasies become a reality for you.

I'm going to share with you that secret now. But, before I do, I want to tell you a little bit about how I discovered this secret, or should I say, how this secret discovered me! ...and just how powerfully it works for people like you and me. I want you to really understand just how real and legitimate this secret is. Everything you're reading here is true. I am not some invisible person hiding behind a mail order company, trying to deceive you and take your money. I am a well-known, successful celebrity. Everything you are reading is 100% true and documented.

For your sake, I hope you're reading every word of this and paying close attention. With all my heart, I want you to know that this has worked for me and for others, and this will work for you.

The Society

The secret is simple, easy and can be applied in just 12 seconds!

But, just who am I, and how did I make this discovery? First off, this secret has been used by people throughout history. Virtually all wealthy and happy people use the secret. But if you were to ask them what they are doing that is making them powerful and in control, stress free, relaxed, happy, with heaps of money, great relationships, and a great body, they won't tell you.

So, how did I manage to come across this secret and transform my life? Well, I grew up in a blue-collar community. My dad was a welder. We didn't have much money growing up, and the goal of most kids was to get a good job in the union. We were told, "Never expect too much out of life. You'll only be disappointed."

In 1979, I was working as a waiter. I was serving a man who was dressed in a very expensive suit. He was thin, and had a great smile. He was very friendly and had a great personality. He asked me if I'd be interested in looking at a part time business opportunity. I figured he was just trying to get me to go to an Amway meeting.

But, he was so likable, plus the fact that he had a solid gold Rolex watch on and had one of the biggest diamond rings I had ever seen, I decided I would learn about this business opportunity.

He introduced me to some very wealthy people. These people actually used the secret I'm talking about. They were wealthy beyond my wildest imagination.

They wore the most expensive clothing, had the fancy cars, and traveled first class. They also had wonderful, loving, romantic relationships. They were confident and in control of their lives. They were in good physical condition. They were happy and laughed all the time. They never seemed to have any challenges or problems in their lives. They were financially independent and totally free. They seemed secure, well adjusted and at peace with themselves. Everyone wanted to be their friends; they seemed like they were living under a lucky star.

I began to wonder how they got wealthy and how they achieved such a wonderful lifestyle. Was there a magic ingredient that they were using that got them to this incredible level of success and power? If there was, they weren't revealing it.

They seemed to have it all; loving families, gorgeous spouses, beautiful homes, money, travel and, most importantly, high self-esteem and peace within.

I desperately wanted these things. I am sure you want these things too. But, maybe you're like me. I felt that I was just unlucky. It was as if there was a black cloud over my head. Sometimes I felt as if there was a curse on me.

No matter how hard I worked I couldn't save any money. It just seemed to slip through my fingers. And so did my relationships. They never lasted. I didn't feel well physically. I wanted to lose weight, but I was unhappy and gaining weight. I had a strange feeling that people didn't like me and were working against me.

Do you feel this way at all? Well, continue to read on, because I think you're going to be amazed.

I didn't know what else to do, so I began reading positive thinking books. I began buying courses on how to be successful and going to seminars. I even consulted astrologers and psychics. I tried to apply the techniques I was learning and being taught.

Yet, nothing worked. They all seemed very hard; they took a lot of time, and money.

Most importantly, I never developed the confidence and peace of mind or that magical magnetic energy that seemed to just attract good things into one's life.

All this positive thinking stuff was so difficult because you had to think about doing it all the time. And, the fact is, it was impossible for me, or anyone, to be positive all the time. I would be depressed one day, angry the next, happy and excited later, and then back again. I would be lucky one moment, then unlucky the next. I began suffering from low self-esteem.

In my zeal and zest to be successful and trying to apply all these things, I started to cut corners. Money got so tight that I did some illegal things involving my credit cards. I basically went broke and became depressed applying all these techniques that I learned from the books, the tapes and the seminars.

My girlfriend left me. Our home was foreclosed on; my car repossessed; and I got convicted of two felonies, and was sentenced to two years in prison. Talk about hitting rock bottom.

I don't think any one of you reading this has ever reached a point in your life that's that low. You may have some challenges, but believe me, nothing compares to how bad it is to go to prison! I was so ashamed and scared. I don't think anyone can imagine the pain and humiliation.

While I was doing my time at a federal prison camp, I gave up all hope. I became cynical, depressed, and angry. I had lost any remaining amount self-respect. I had zero self-esteem. I would have made a great case study for a psychologist.

But, a miracle did happen while I was in prison. Because I had some time to think and ponder, I began mentally analyzing those individuals who I met back in 1979, who seemed to have it all. For hours, I racked my brain trying to figure out what they had in common. Was it just their destiny, or was there some secret ingredient which allowed them to be successful?

The days went by, the weeks went by, the months went by, and I continued to think about them. After these months of mental study and analysis, I began to see that they in fact did not apply the techniques that were in those positive thinking books, psychic forecasts or seminars on success and financial independence that gave you false information on how to be happy and wealthy.

I began to see very clearly, after hours and hours of deep contemplation, that they were all applying a powerful secret. But what that secret was, I didn't know.

Then, a few days later, the miracle happened. I received a large package in the mail. After the prison guard opened this package, he handed me a massive manuscript. Attached was a little yellow sticker with a handwritten note saying simply, "You have paid your dues. You are now ready for inside secrets." The note was signed, The Society.

I read and read and read. It seemed unbelievable. It seemed too good to be true. This manuscript revealed the secret that can allow a person, anywhere in the world, no matter what his or her current situation, to apply this simple secret in 12 seconds, and virtually, as if by magic, transform their whole being into a powerful, confident, peaceful, secure man or woman who virtually attracts money and success, the most deep romantic love, the most loyal friendships, effortlessly. That was shocking to me. And the best part was you could apply this highly-coveted secret in less than 12 seconds.

I remembered going to the library in prison and reading biographies of famous people who seemed to have it all. I now realized how throughout history all of those incredibly successful people actually knew about and applied this same secret!

In order for me to believe that this secret was as effective and effortless as I believed it was, I had to see results instantly.

The day finally came, I made my decision. It seemed to me that this secret did work for all of those other people and just might work for me.

So, I sat down on the bed in my cell and closed my eyes...it took me only 12 seconds to apply the Society's most highly-coveted secret. It was easy, it was simple, and anyone who possesses certain inherent skills can do it, including you. Now listen to this. This is the most amazing part.

Approximately one minute later, over the loud speaker, I heard my name called. I was being called to the Warden's office. I'd never been called to the Warden's office before, and I wondered why.

But, I felt some deep change within me. I felt as if a huge weight was lifting off my shoulders. I felt that I was beginning to see things for the very first time. It looked as if colors were changing and becoming more vibrant and bright. I felt my breathing was easier. I felt my shoulders were going back as if I were gaining height.

This incredible rush was going through my body like electricity or energy. It seemed my body was becoming energized. Something was happening inside me. It's hard to describe, but it was very real.

This was not subtle; this was a big thing happening to me. I walked to the Warden's office and to my utter amazement, I was told that my conviction was going to be reversed. I couldn't believe my ears.

Imagine, within one minute after I applied the coveted secret, my conviction was being reversed. Was this just a huge coincidence? The Warden told me I would be leaving in three days.

That is the moment that I knew, beyond a shadow of a doubt that the Society and its secrets would change my life forever.

Now, let me fast-forward for just a moment. Once I got out of prison, my life seemed to be a rocket ship to the moon.

Beautiful, successful women, even several actresses and models, started paying attention to me. They just started showing up around me and acting as if they wanted to get to know me. It was as though all of the sudden I had become the most intriguing man on the planet! It was very strange. I have to admit, it was also very fun. It made me feel great!

The Twelve-Second Miracle

It was really incredible the changes that occurred in me and how I seemed to become the center of everyone's attention. Soon, I was the envy of all my friends. I also noticed I was in the best shape of my life: I was thinner and looked better than I ever had.

Now, listen to this. Remember, I came out of prison penniless. But, because I applied this 12-second miracle, everything in my life just started working to my advantage.

It was effortless. I couldn't make a wrong move. Everything worked out perfect. I couldn't believe the lucky breaks I was getting, almost on a daily basis.

It was like miracle after miracle after miracle was happening right before my eyes. It felt like I was in a dream fantasy world. It happened so easily and so fast that I couldn't even believe it.

Now, listen closely, within 12 months I had deposited over 20 million dollars into my new business account. I couldn't believe this was happening to me. Before, I was unlucky and nothing went my way. Now, I felt golden!

I was driving a brand new Mercedes S600 coupe. I began traveling first class. And it kept getting better. In the last six years, my businesses have generated over two billion dollars in sales worldwide.

I've had the Rolls Royce, the Ferrari's, my own private Lear jets; I've been invited to meet presidents and prime ministers of countries around the world.

I've appeared on national television programs and even in a full length Hollywood motion picture (if I mentioned the name, you would instantly know it). Remember, I am a well-known celebrity! I just wish I could let you know who I am; it would blow your mind.

You've heard me on the Rush Limbaugh radio show as well as the Howard Stern show, all because of this little secret.

I call it the 12-second miracle. But, there is a catch; if you don't use it, you could lose it. I have to give you a very important warning. I think you'll find this fascinating.

The Society

Three years ago, when everything was going great, I made an innocent mistake. I wasn't paying attention and I unplugged the 12-second miracle.

You see, once you apply this discovery, you have to make sure it stays plugged in. If you don't you could lose it all. I can tell you, it just works that way. I unplugged the power secret, by accident; I didn't realize I was doing it. I didn't do it consciously, but I did it. I didn't know I did it, but I did notice things changing. Just when I thought I had finally found the right woman and was planning on a lifelong marriage, our relationship went bad. My income dried up. I began feeling stressed out and anxious. I wasn't happy. I wasn't sleeping well. I began obsessive eating and gaining weight. It seemed like old times, like people didn't like me anymore. And, instead of being Mr. Lucky, I was becoming Mr. Unlucky again. I felt like a black cloud was over me once more. I felt cursed. I felt paranoid. I thought "Well, it was good while it lasted, but I guess I'm destined to be a failure." I was confused and angry.

Suddenly, it hit me. The secret, what about the secret? Why wasn't it working anymore? I instantly noticed I had unplugged it. I cursed myself. How could I be so stupid?

But, I smiled for the first time in months because I knew I had the power to plug it in again. It would only take 12 seconds. I didn't plug it in immediately; I just thought for a few minutes how exciting it would be to see this miracle in action once more. I wondered what wonderful things would happen.

I remembered the last time I did it; within a minute the Warden called me into the office and told me that the charges were dropped against me, and I was released in three days. I was excited just wondering what could happen. I couldn't even begin to imagine.

I sat down in my favorite chair and closed my eyes. It took me just 12 seconds to plug in the magic secret discovery.

The Twelve-Second Miracle

Within seconds, I heard the fax machine going off. I walked over, pulled out a fax and read it. It was from another country.

I was being invited to appear with Mikhail Gorbachev and General Norman Schwarzkopf as well as one of the richest men in that country!

I began to laugh like a kid. It was another miracle happening right before my eyes. The same feelings came over me as before. I felt confident again. I felt in control. I felt happy. I felt at peace. I was secure; I relaxed, all of the stress left me. I had a knowingness that everything would turn out fantastic. Life was exciting again.

It happened instantly and effortlessly.

I hope you're paying attention because I want you to know that these things can happen to you. In just 12 seconds, your whole life can change.

Now, I have to tell you an interesting anecdote: When I accepted this speaking engagement, I actually traveled for 14 days with President Gorbachev and General Schwarzkopf.

While I was in this foreign country, I met one of the richest men in the world. We instantly hit it off, became fast friends and formed a business together.

This man has one of the largest yachts made, with a helicopter on it.

And he's got over 80 luxury and exotic cars including Rolls Royce's, Mercedes, and Ferrari's. You name it, he's got it.

He's been featured on the TV series Baywatch, playing himself. He meets regularly with the wealthiest people in the world, as well as presidents and prime ministers.

He's had numerous celebrities on his yacht as his personal guest, including Ricky Martin, Tom Cruise, you name it. Everyone wants to be this guy's friend.

When I met this incredibly rich, powerful and happy man, I was intrigued. All the people around him were incredibly loyal. He just seemed to have it all. As always, I was very curious.

The Society

Did he have a secret that I didn't know about?

Well, I wanted to pick his brain. We were on his yacht, having lunch, and we decided to go into the hot tub (yes, he has a hot tub on the yacht).

We were sitting in the hot tub talking and I got a phone call from Robert Kiyosaki, he's the gentleman who wrote the book Rich Dad, Poor Dad. He knew of this guy, but had never met him. Robert was actually quite impressed that we were business partners.

Robert wanted to know if this rich fellow had a secret, too. I told him I would try to find out and get back to him. I hung up the phone, and while sitting in the hot tub; I asked my friend if he had a secret to his incredible success. I wanted to know how he got so lucky.

With a big smile, and a deep, wonderful belly laugh, he told me what it was. I smiled and laughed myself.

He had just described the 12-second miracle to me.

Now, I can't tell you that by applying the 12-second miracle that you'll become as wealthy as him, or as me. I can't say that you'll become as famous as us. I can't tell you that you'll never have another problem in your life.

But I can say, with total confidence, you will be in our "club". If you apply this 12-second miracle in your life, you'll be happier and you'll have more peace of mind.

You'll have better, more loving, romantic relationships.

You'll have more money, you'll get out of debt and you'll be better off than you ever have been in your entire life. You will feel relaxed and in control in every situation.

You will have total certainty and total confidence. Your self-esteem will soar!

I believe that if you apply this simple secret that you will feel like you have a genie that is willing to grant your every wish any time you ask. You'll be better off in every area of your life; emotionally, physically, financially, than you ever can possibly dream or imagine.

The life you always dreamed about is “12 seconds away.”

Once you get this discovery for yourself, you will use this secret immediately. I’ve called this Society secret the 12-second miracle.

Remember, everything I’ve said in this letter is true. This discovery has worked for me, and I know it’s worked for others. I’ve personally seen it.

I’ve personally seen people apply this technique, and in 12 seconds, I’ve physically seen, with my own eyes, their lives change.

Because you have received this Revelation booklet, I know that you, too, have been selected by the Society to receive this incredible, life-lifting secret just like I was a few years ago. Although your life may not feel lucky right now, you are, indeed, one of the lucky few. And I congratulate you, because I know in my heart the 12-second miracle will work for you, too.

The Society could easily charge $500, $1000, even $10,000 for their Hidden Manuscript. And, for what you would receive, it’s worth a thousand times that. Think about it. How much would you be willing to pay if you knew this secret would allow you to eliminate all of your debt? How much would you be willing to pay for this secret, if you knew by applying it you could make ten thousand, twenty thousand, even fifty thousand dollars per month? How much would you be willing to pay for this 12-second miracle, if you knew that by applying it you would have the most loving, romantic relationships you could ever begin to imagine experiencing? How much would you be willing to pay if you knew, with 100% certainty that this secret discovery would allow you to lose all the weight you want effortlessly and have the physical body you’ve always dreamed about?

I believe you couldn’t put a price tag on it.

The Society’s number one goal is to help a select few, those who have just the right traits, to become the best they can be in every area of life. That's why they're making this secret available to you, and a few others lucky enough to have been selected, for virtually pennies.

I shared this story about my success from the Secrets because, as I dictate this letter, I am sitting in one of the most gorgeous homes you can imagine, looking over the mountains and meadows and valleys of my custom estate, in what I call paradise; one of the prettiest places on earth.

I'm happier today than I ever have been.

I now have a wonderful, loving, romantic relationship, a very successful business, loyal friends, and total peace of mind. And, deep in my heart, as a fellow member, I want you to experience these things too. I want you to be happy. I want you to have your dreams come true in your life!

Maybe you've been praying for this opportunity, maybe you've been wishing for this opportunity. Maybe you always dreamed of hitting the lottery or finding Aladdin's lamp and having that magic genie make all of your wishes and dreams come true. Well, today is your lucky day! Your ship has come in; all you have to do is take advantage of it.

One more thing, when you're watching TV, I want you to wonder who I am. I will tell you this; you'll be able to tell if you look into my eyes. Just look for the man on television who is totally, 100% at peace.

What If You Found Your Husband or Wife In Bed With Another?

Inside Secrets Guarantee That Won't Ever Happen To You

Has the thought ever crossed your mind? In a cross section of the public, in every ten marriages, four of those marriages will end up with one of the partners in bed with another. That number skyrockets the younger the couple is, the more attractive they are, the more exposure they get, etc. The odds of infidelity can really start to add up.

And those odds go much, much higher for girlfriends and boyfriends.

Despite the odds, I can guarantee you that won't happen to you.

Perhaps an even more unnerving statistic is that among every four families, a child, conceived during that marriage, belongs to only one of the spouses in that marriage, unbeknownst to the other spouse.

I hope you're not that other spouse.

Again, I can guarantee that won't happen to you.

How?

First, let me probe a little. And I do apologize for this unpleasantry. But to reach the summit where you can clearly and confidently stand above everyone else requires some painful climbing.

Consider my letter that painful climb. But when we're done, you'll stand on the top of the summit, looking down at all competition.

Of course, this is a one-way communication, so my questions are rhetorical, which means you're not answering me, just yourself.

Have you ever wondered, in your thoughts: when your partner fantasizes, who is he or she thinking of?

Every partner fantasizes about others. And sometimes those internal thoughts graduate to external actions...perhaps subtle actions like putting oneself in more public settings that could lead to something.

The Society

Again, I'm sorry for going there in this letter, but this is how it all starts. Eventually, it leads to the horror (and it is a horror) when your partner surrenders to the aroused grip of another.

Once that happens, you lose control, because your partner is no longer yours. He or she mentally and physically surrenders to the new lover. Then you lose that person.

I'm not just sounding off; I'm speaking from experience. My own story is too private and too painful to relay in too much detail, but let it suffice to say: next to death, a person hits his lowest low when his married spouse sleeps with another. It's even lower than bankruptcy. I know, for I've experienced both.

If you have gone through the heartache of your spouse sleeping with another, you can find comfort and strength in the story I'm about to tell you. If you have not gone through the pain, and I hope you haven't, you will learn how to avoid it and how to never worry about it again by the following true story:

Without a clue, I was heading toward my lowest low. My first wife became pregnant, from me. What a wonderful day! The next thing I know, she went out and got an abortion. Soon after that, she not only slept with another man...but she soon became pregnant from him!

Imagine my state of mind after all this.

He was a big "hunk" well over six feet tall. I'm a small guy, well below six feet.

Moreover, my business was falling apart. The IRS was tearing it from limb to limb, among other things.

But I could not think about my business or anything else. My mind kept wandering to my wife in bed with another man! I just couldn't believe it.

The pain was so bad that I got a headache from hell. Just thinking about that headache today raises fear in me. My head hurt so badly that I could not sleep...and when I did doze off, the pain kept throbbing in my sleep. I dreamed that my head was in a vice, and something was being twisted deeper and deeper into my eye sockets...until I woke up, sweating.

Inside Secrets Protect You From Spousal Cheating

I was nauseous and throwing up from the pain. I went to a doctor, and he had me get a CAT scan. But there was nothing physically wrong.

The doctor asked me if I was experiencing any stress in my personal life.

All I could manage to say was, “Yes.”

That’s when he told me I had an acute stress-related headache. I guess the tension in the muscles cut off the circulation of the capillaries around the brain.

I was so emotionally paralyzed that I was unable to act on anything. My business really fell apart.

As I went broke, I really didn’t care. I just couldn’t stop thinking about my wife...with another man.

It was torture to think about it, but I couldn’t stop. I also couldn’t eat. I had always been just the right weight, but I got very skinny as I lost 30 pounds.

All I wanted was to get her back. But, as I said before, I had no influence over her whatsoever.

As all ex-partners in her situation, she turned control over to her new lover.

Every day I hoped and prayed we’d get back together. I’d fantasize all day long that she’d not find happiness with her new lover and would come back to me. The more I wanted her back, the further she slipped away. First, there were the divorce papers. Then, there was her wedding.

And most painful of all, while I was still hopelessly lost in pain, ten months later, she was having her baby boy — her first child — with her new husband.

I thought signing the divorce papers was tough. I thought her wedding day was tough. But the day she had her first child

The Society

— by another man — was the toughest.

Sounds pretty bad, right? That'll never happen to you, right? I wish I could tell you, "Right." But I can't.

Listen, I would have, even my first wife would have said that a split could not ever happen to us. We were in love — both of us! But it happened.

Sh__ happens.

If you've been through this, then you're relating to my story. If you have not been through this, then I apologize for dragging you through my personal story. But, perhaps you can learn from my pain so this never happens to you.

Anyway, I really hit bottom. The day my ex-wife had her baby boy, I called my brother long distance...just to talk to someone. I was trying to watch a basketball game on television, but I kept picturing my ex-wife and her husband in the delivery room. (Unfortunately, because we worked in the same close-knit industry, I still would hear about what was going on in her life by well-meaning associates, which I must say made it a lot harder.)

So, my brother and I were just talking about some little things when, suddenly, embarrassingly, I started crying. He'd never seen or heard me cry before. (I'm the big brother and was a tough guy growing up.)

He couldn't believe his ears. And he had no idea why I was crying. Not knowing what to do, I hung up the phone.

Well, what happened next changed my life. This was when I would discover my younger brother's sensitivity, maturity, and loving feelings for me.

And, this would be when I would discover the Secrets.

Three or four minutes after I hung up, the phone rang. I could barely say, "Hello." Remember, my ex-wife, the love of my life, was in the hospital giving birth.

My brother was on the other end and said I didn't have to say a word. He told me to just listen to what he had to say.

Inside Secrets Protect You From Spousal Cheating

He told me an amazing story about a 2000-year-old secret society. He told me about a group of rich and powerful ancient Greeks and how their money, power, and love surpassed any heights the world had ever known. He told me about very rich and powerful men and women whom others competed for, even fought for. He told me how the secrets of these ancient Greeks were the most closely-guarded secrets of all time, known only to a select few. Yes, the few with money, power, and unchallengeable love.

The love part of his story was all I could hear at that vulnerable time. But later the money and power parts of the story would rise to prominence in my life.

He went on and on. As he did, I felt a transformation happen to me: my posture straightened up, my breathing got easier, my mind became focused...and for the first time in almost a year, I felt like a man again.

Images of my ex-wife cradling her first born left my mind. I felt strong. Independent.

My brother then told me he was going to send me a large manuscript that contained the most guarded secret of all time. He told me that all my woes would vanish once I had the 2000-year-old secret.

When he was finished telling me his story, I asked him why he did not send me this secret sooner.

His answer was strange at the time. He told me:

“You have to be ready to control its power — its money and love gathering power.”

I didn’t understand his answer (isn’t anyone ready for money and love? I thought), but I accepted his answer.

Then I asked him when and how he came across the 2000-year-old secret. He had come upon it just two months earlier, which explained his sudden burst of success. ...He would not tell me how he found the secret.

He said he would send the manuscript that same day. I asked him to send it by Fed Ex.

The Society

When I received the package, I tore it open. I read and read and read. What happened to me over the next week was nothing short of a miracle:

First let me tell you: my ex-wife called me two days after giving birth to tell me about her son. (Oh yes, ex-spouses tend to put the hurt in their former lovers this way.) But, my strength surprised me...and her.

"Congratulations," I said with a genuine smile on my face. "Your life is with your son and husband now. I wish you all the happiness, and it sounds like you're off to a beautiful beginning. Thank you for calling, but I have my own beautiful beginning to think about now."

Let me tell you, that just automatically came out of my mouth, without me even thinking about it. Moreover, I realized I really was happy. I was not playing any games or putting on a happy face while crying inside. I was just happy...and ready to move on.

My ex-wife sounded a little unsettled. She immediately started asking me if I had found someone new, which I had not. When I told her I had not found anyone, she seemed relieved. I think my yearning for her gave her some sense of security before. But no longer. ...I was on my way with the Secrets.

The Secrets make men and women strong. And it is that very strength potential lovers are drawn to and do not want to let go of.

My ex-wife took a trip to see me for a day three weeks later. She made some excuse about some business she was in town for. But I knew she was there for me. She called and asked to see me. That night, she said she was very confused. She was having powerful feelings for me again. She wanted me to tell her what to do. Before I could answer, she grabbed me and gave me a long, passionate kiss. ...She desperately wanted me to make love to her.

Inside Secrets Protect You From Spousal Cheating

A few weeks before, this would have been a godsend, a miracle. This was everything I had dreamed of, begged for, prayed for every day and night over and over again ever since she left me. I would have given up everything for this moment. So, imagine the shock I felt inside when I automatically said, without thinking about it:

“Go back to your husband and son. They need you. They love you. I don’t.”

I was in shock. It was like my brain was in total control of everything I said and did.

Two weeks later, she called me and told me she was going through a very hard time. She told me it was depression. She actually begged to come back to me.

Remember, she had a five-week-old infant at home with a loving husband planning to spend the rest of his life with her. This should have been the happiest time of her life.

For the first time, I actually felt sorry for her. I took pity on her and automatically said, without even thinking about it, as gently as I could:

“We had a wonderful life together. But things have changed. I’ll be here whenever you want to call me, or even come see me. But we must both move on. We can always be friends. But we will never be lovers again.”

Then she started crying and saying that I found someone else. I told her that wasn’t so.

Actually, four other wonderful ladies had developed a real interest in me during the five weeks since I had the Secrets. Now the biggest “problem” in my life was trying to decide who would be best for me.

I decided to be completely open with all of them. ...The competitive drive to be mine then went berserk. These beautiful women devoted themselves to me like nothing I had experienced before.

Now, fast-forward a few months: something else was happening to me during all this celebrity-like attention.

The Society

The Secrets simply make a man or a woman more competitive than other men and women. So, not only were potential romantic lovers being attracted to me — so was money.

My little fledgling business became my tool to generating huge sums of money — $50,000...$100,000...$1,000,000. My homespun business (that, basically, I had started to keep from having a job) suddenly brought in several million dollars annually.

I had money like nothing I ever imagined. I sat there one afternoon in my new, 10,000-square-foot custom home, when suddenly it hit me:

“I’m rich!” I screamed at the top of my lungs. “I’m filthy rich!”

My outburst caused my four live-in housekeepers to run in to be sure I was okay.

I had lots and lots of money...and lots and lots of love. By the way, my brother is rich, too. People with this secret get rich in several ways.

After several rejections on my part, my ex-wife finally accepted she would never get me back.

I eventually married a national beauty queen and had children (three children going on four).

My life is a fairy tale in every way. Oh, the IRS and I are on great terms, too.

How Do The Inside Secrets Work?

When you get your manuscript, read quickly through the parts that interest you...like money and love. (If you’re not a reader, don’t worry. You’re reading secrets, not a book per se. Big difference. Nonreaders digest it painlessly.)

Reading through the subjects that interest you will automatically program your brain so you behave differently.

Inside Secrets Protect You From Spousal Cheating

For example, consider how I acted toward my ex-wife. Up until I read the love portion of the Secrets, I was helplessly heartbroken. But after reading the Secrets, my brain was programmed to behave completely differently, which I did without even thinking about it.

The same was true with making money. After I read the money portions of the Secrets, I automatically acted differently. My brain was programmed to behave differently. Without even thinking about it, I started making a lot of money.

The same will happen to you. Your individual circumstances are different than mine, but once your brain is programmed with the Secrets, you will automatically begin your journey to making large sums of money, power, and love.

Remember, this is the most closely guarded, 2000-year-old-secret that all really successful, rich and famous elites have used over the centuries.

Why Were The Inside Secrets Made Available to You?

The secrets were originally written down by a Greek scholar 2000 years ago. Back then, only the educated elite could acquire the secrets. The modern-day hidden Society studied that Greek secret knowledge and brought it forward into our modern world.

The Society only releases these powerful Inside Secrets to an elite group of specially qualified, hand-picked members. Every year, the Society releases the Secrets to lucky members around the globe — people who have been specially selected by the Society because their timing is just right, because they are about to enter cycle three — the cycle of breaking bondage to the past and opening up vast new opportunity.

That is why I was lucky enough to receive the Secrets just when I did. For, just as I thought I was at my lowest point ever, I was actually about to enter cycle three and experience the greatest opportunities of my life.

The Society

Because you have been sent this Society Revelation booklet, I know that you, too, are about to enter the fabulous cycle three. That is why you must grasp this incredible opportunity now. Mail, fax or phone in your order by this Friday or it will be too late. Indeed, the Society will no longer spend any more time helping you because you will be too far progressed into cycle three.

Order your Inside Secrets right now. You just may save your marriage, your dignity, your sanity and everything else. And, from the money you make, take vacations anywhere in the world, for a month at a time, all first class.

Comments Overheard at the Romantic-Love Society Summit

* My steady boyfriend of two years all of a sudden was showing interest in other women. I thought we were headed for a fall. Soon after that started, I got my Inside Secrets. He quickly lost all interest in other women and now adores only me. And, with the money we make now, thanks to the Society, our life is a continuous honeymoon.

* My divorce lawyer, of all people, shocked me when she said she could make my husband fall madly in love with me again to save our marriage. She then handed me the Secrets. It worked! My husband dumped a woman half my age to come back to me. He begged me to take him back! It was the most wonderful feeling I've had — even better than the first time around! Thank you, thank you, thank you!

* I got the Secrets for the money/power miracle it delivers.

Inside Secrets Protect You From Spousal Cheating

But was I in for a mind trip! A couple weeks after I started applying the Secrets, my wife started hysterically crying in my arms. She confessed to cheating on me during our past six years. She said she could not forgive herself and said she could love no one but me, ever again. I was hurt, but I knew her new-found attraction for me was because of the Society and its secrets.
